DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims are directed to a program per se. While the program contains functionally descriptive material the recording of the functionality material on some computer-readable medium, which would enable the functionality to be realized, fails to be recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by applicant's own admission, namely Fig. 1.

Fig. 1 show a method of generating a sinusoidal signal which includes determining a desired frequency ( $f$ ) and a sampling rate ( $f_s$ ), note paragraph 0020, determining the  $n^{\text{th}}$  sample ... (Equation 3), and determining the coefficient as a function of a multiple of said sampling rate

(Equation 4 wherein the multiple is 1). Relative to the decimating step of claim 1 note that it is a conditional step.

Specification

4. The last line of the abstract is required to be canceled.
5. References in the specification to the claims are improper, note paragraph 0008.

Drawings

6. Fig. 1 is required to be labeled "Prior Art".

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
